“ To the Memory of My Compa Vince that's what i called him, How do i start about the Man, Friend, and Compadre he was too me. I met Vince through my back then Girlfriend Vickie, Who convinced me that Gina , Vincents wife was her sister!! But when i met him although he was 4yrs older than me he always treated me as an equal! And It worked to my advantage, see the Laws had just change from 18 to 21 to be able to purchased alcohol and so i always had him to buy it for us to party!!! The Memory of My Compa is a giving , loving quite man! I never saw him out of control mad! He just stayed cool and enjoyed his music like his Daughter Missy remembers, he was always tapping his hands on anything close and stomping his feet to the beat!!! He was a good listener not only to music but to whatever i had to say, he didnt always have the answers for me but he was a logical thinker and always tried to advise me best he could!! We became close because of our wives Vickie and Gina who claimed to be sister but treated each other like the sister they always wanted!! Back then i saw him as as an older brother too!! Vince was always trying to make us laugh or smile with the things he said or did but kept us positive , never a dull moment with him!!! Even thought sometimes laughs came to us by accident . I remember one time the four of us were on our way to go party somewhere when they lived in Fontana, and we were cruising in his 68 Impala, and of course we were doing something that i now see as a No! No! Drinking as we drive!! We were drivinng down Sierra Ave. by the the pizzahut where the train tracks are, that day before we got to thier house Gina and He had argued about something but were cool about it and never spoiled our plans to go out and have fun! So as we were driving and having drinks in the car , dacquiries i think? and so as we were driving there, they kind of displayed im still madd at you emotions to each other, but when we crossed those train tracks everything changed , although he didnt do it on pupose, as we crossed them some of Ginas drink spilled on her so she turned to him and said watch it!! You did it on pupose!! So it was on again the argument. Then hard nose Gina said Fudge it!! Got madd and tired to throw the rest of her drink out the window, but didn't realize the window was up and so it all came back on her but good!! Then we heard her say Awe Shit!!! and so LMAO!!! We all started laughing so hard that tears started coming out our eyes, and maybe even pee'd a little you know those laughs right!!?? So here we go headed back home to change. Thats when even Hard Nose Gina (tough is what i mean by that) who I Love like a Sister even realized lifes too short and forgot all about being madd and then we all settled our petty differences !! So as u see My Compa always even by accident made us laugh and smile. We became Compadres when He and Gina Entrusted thier First Born Son Eric too My Wife Vickie and I , which always placed us important to them in thier lives to give us that Honor of being his God Parents!! But to us it was not just Eric! All their kids always were to us viewed as our kids too! As did ours to them as well. So as you now are gone from us and with our God ! I Will Forever Miss You Compa and hope you will always bring that smile and laughter to mind as i am Reminiscing you, and I hope you will be watching over your children, as i will always be there for them if they wish for me to be! I know one day we will see *each other again, but for now I want you to know you will be Missed and that I Love You!! Compa Vince Always your Friend and Compadre

“ "Dad I can still hear the sound of your hands tapping to every beat of a song, as if you were playing the drums and taking us on police ride along's. I can still see your handsome smile,hear your jokes and laughter. Listening to you reminisce about the good-times with mom, friends and family, that was the last conversation we had. I'm glad I got to spend those final moments with you. You held me when I entered into life, and I held you when you entered eternal life."
